

Amendment under 37 CFR 1.312

To COMMISSIONER FOR PATENTS

The text cited below from the original application (see the top of page 30 in WO 2004/002052), is not shown in the early publication although it has never been questioned or removed during the examination process.

" While the invention has been described with reference to particular example embodiments, further modifications and improvements which will occur to those skilled in the art, may be made within the purview of the appended claims, without departing from the scope of the invention in its broader aspect.

Numerous modification and variations of the present invention are possible in light of the above teachings. It is therefore to be understood that within the scope of the appended claims, the invention may be practiced otherwise than as specifically described herein.

What is claimed is:

The Office is earnestly solicited to retain verbatim such original text in the publication of the patent (allowed already), in accordance to the common rule assuming meticulous preservation of original text which has not been questioned or removed during examination.

Respectfully submitted,

By: JBogdan 12 / June / 2009
John W. Bogdan